

I bought satellite radio in order to exercise my freedom from obnoxious commercials and DJs. This includes on demand traffic and weather reporting through XM Radio. I encourage you to continue to allow them to bring listeners these services. Local radio stations will need to compete for listeners the traditional way - through competition - and not through administrative fiat that goes over the wishes of the public. Thank you.
Jamie Kotler